Expression of interest: Virtual head teacher for Indonesian

Expressions of interest are invited from teachers of Indonesian 7-12, who would like to be a virtual head teacher for teachers of Indonesian across NSW in 2018.

To ensure equity of support across all languages, the Language Officers in the Languages and Culture team (Secondary Education - Learning and Teacher Directorate) provide generic support to languages teachers 7-12 in NSW public schools.

A virtual Indonesian faculty will be established with a virtual head teacher to support teachers of Indonesian. Support will be delivered through the online curation of resources, providing language-specific advice organising and/or delivering professional learning and networking.

This is a 12 month pilot program.

The successful candidate will receive $1,500 per term. Payment will be term-by-term, based on quality of support and output. The funding will be provided via a grant to the successful applicant's home school.

This position does not include a timetabled period allocation. There will be ongoing collaboration with the Language and Culture team in the development of this pilot program.

Role statement:

- commit to undertake the role for a one year period
- provide quality language-specific advice to support teachers of Indonesian 7-12
- curate quality online resources for teachers of Indonesian
- identify professional learning opportunities for teachers of Indonesian and organise virtual network meetings
- facilitate collaboration between teachers of Indonesian and promote 21st century learning.

Selection criteria:

- permanent employee of NSW Department of Education, with approval to teach Indonesian
- proven ability to work collaboratively within teams to build teacher capacity
- ability to utilise ICT to support teachers of Indonesian in a virtual environment
- highly-developed organisational, communication and leadership skills.

Preference will be given to teachers who are currently teaching Indonesian.

If you are interested in this opportunity, please submit via email:
