

Coming Together, Staying Together for Greek

Friday, 19 October 2018

LLAMA: Language Learning Activities through Multiple Arts

Dr Georgia Nikolaidou, Consul for Educational Affairs, Greek Education Office of Australia and N.Z., Melbourne, Australia, Consulate General of Greece in Melbourne, Victoria

This workshop will offer participants a number of varied and different activities for the languages classroom. Participants will become familiar with techniques that will help them in their professional capacity. The workshop includes improvisation, music and drama, and insights as to how to engage their students with fun and interactive activities in the classroom.

Dr Georgia Nikolaidou was born in Thessaloniki, Greece. She worked as a music teacher in public primary schools. In 2006 she was appointed Manager of Cultural Affairs, Education Directorate of East Thessaloniki. In 2016 she was appointed Consul for Education, Hellenic Republic in Melbourne. She holds a Diploma in Piano Performance (Macedonian Conservatoire, Greece) an MA in Contemporary Studies in Music (York University, United Kingdom), an MA in Cultural Informatics (Aegean University, Greece) and a PhD in Music Education and ICT based collaborative learning (Bristol University, United Kingdom).