

MANTEN RESOURCES NOOSA WORKSHOP 2019

This workshop is suitable for primary and secondary school teachers of Japanese. The day will be divided into a series of shorter modules that will discuss topics such as advocacy, soft CLIL, embracing topical issues in simple language, and embedding Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander perspectives into your program. Check out the schedule below for more detail.

Date: Saturday July 13th 2019. This date falls inside the holidays for all states and territories.

Venue: Peppers Noosa resort & Villas, 33A Viewland drive, Noosa heads, QLD, 4567.

Cost and booking information: The full day workshop is $195. (The early price is $165 if you book by the end of term 1, 2019). You can book and pay for the workshop via the Trybooking link:

<https://www.trybooking.com/TQDQ>

If you have any other questions about the day, please email us at jblog1help@gmail.com.

Workshop Schedule Session Overview

Session 1 : 9:00-10:30am : 1.5 hours

- Productive skills focus – ideas to improve student speaking, reading & writing skills via contemporary issues
- The art of marketing your subject – strategies to grow your elective numbers and increase your presence in the school

Morning tea : 10:30-11am

Session 2 : 11:00am -1:00pm : 2 hours

- Soft CLIL: What is it? What does it look like in a primary and secondary context?
- Exploring soft CLIL through Hokusai - linking art, Hokusai and Mt Fuji

Lunch : 1-2pm

Session 3 : 2:00-3:30pm : 1.5 hours

- Popular pedagogies & you – how to use one resource in 3 ways reflecting aspects of CLIL, Task-based learning & Comprehensible Input
- Embedding Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander perspectives into your program

Completing this course will contribute 5 hours of NESA Registered PD addressing standard descriptors 1.5.2, 2.1.2 and 6.2.2 from the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers towards maintaining Proficient Teacher Accreditation in NSW.

Presenters:

Junko Nichols has taught Japanese and English as a Foreign Language at pre-primary, primary, secondary and tertiary levels in Japan, China, England and Australia over the past 20 years. She has taught at a Japanese immersion program at Central Queensland University and has been involved in language teaching and language teacher training at a variety of schools, using a range of methodologies and approaches. She has many fabulous ideas for primary teachers including how to use "soft-CLIL" in a variety of topics such as poetry and art.

Liberty is the Catholic Education Commission's representative on the NSW Languages advisory Panel, the Project officer for Languages in the Broken Bay diocese and the author of the Jblog textbook series. She is passionate about supporting Japanese teachers and students with research-based resources and practical teaching strategies. Liberty has spoken at various conferences for the MLTANSW, JTAN, JLTAV, DETNSW and at the National Symposium for Japanese Teaching in 2016 & 2018.